Applicants may formulate the arguments that they consider appropriate within ten working days (in the case of urgent selection processes it shall be within five business days) counted from the day following the publication of the provisional list of admitted and excluded persons.

In the event that an applicant does not appear on the provisional list of admitted or excluded persons, the corresponding claim must be accompanied by a copy of the application submitted at the time of lodging the application.

After the expiry of the term of claims and after the resolution of any possible incidents, the final list of admitted and excluded persons will be published.

The list of admitted and excluded applicants, as well as the successive announcements of the call, will be published on L'Auditori website (www.auditori.cat).

5- Characteristics of the selection process

The audition will take place at L'Auditori de Barcelona (C/Lepant, 150) on 13 November 2018. The applicants shall play the instrument they would use if they were to join the Orchestra. The tuning of the orchestra is 442.

A single audition will be performed, consisting of playing, behind a screen in order to preserve their anonymity, the concerto and the orchestral pieces stipulated in Annex 2 of this call, selected on the day of the audition. The Selection Committee may decide to carry out a second phase without notice and with the same repertoire as the first audition, for those applicants who have passed it.

All the members of the Tribunal shall evaluate each applicant in secret.

In pool processes, a numerical vote of 1 to 10 must be issued and the resultant arithmetic average shall be the applicant's score.

All applicants who obtain an arithmetic average greater than 5 points will go into the next round.

After completing the last round, the Tribunal will give scores to the finalists and publish the list of applicants who have obtained the minimum qualification required (5 points) to pass the selection process in order of descending score. This final score will be the definitive one that determines the result of the selection process.

In general, and in relation to the auditions covered by this call, the Chairman of the Tribunal will guide the rest of the members of the Committee in relation to the criteria regarding the minimum level that the applicants must achieve, in accordance with the needs and aims of the Orchestra.

The Selection Committee may summon applicants for an audition and/or interview to assess their personal characteristics of adaptation to the place of work. If this call is carried out, it shall be compulsory and will be evaluated up to a maximum of 10 points, with elimination of those applicants who do not reach a minimum score of 5 points. Under no circumstances may this score vary the order of priority established in the previous round of auditions.

6. Results of the selection process

Once the classification of the applicants has been completed, the Selection Committee shall publish a list on the website www.auditori.cat containing the applicants in descending order of their score.

In the case of a tie in the final score, an arithmetical average will be made of the scores from all the auditions to determine the final order; if it persists, the applicant with nationality of a State of the European Union, or those who are spouses of nationals of one of the Member States of the European Union, shall be chosen, provided they are not separated by law, or those applicants from another State in which, by virtue of the international treaty signed by the EU and ratified by Spain, the free movement of workers is applicable in the terms in which these are defined in the Treaty establishing the European Community. In the event of a continued tie, the elder applicant shall be chosen. If in the end the tie still cannot be broken, the Chairman shall have the casting vote.

The applicants proposed by the Tribunal must submit the requested supporting documents to the Orchestra's offices (C/Lepant, 150) within the term of 20 calendar days from the publication of the list of approved persons.

If within the term, and except in cases of force majeure, the proposed applicant has not submitted their documentation or does not meet the requirements demanded, he/she cannot be hired and all actions shall be null and void, without prejudice of any responsibility which he/she may have for making false statements on the application form on which he/she applied to take part in the auditions.

The incorporation shall be made whenever the corresponding work and residence permit in Spain is obtained, if necessary. In this case the incorporation would be carried out at the moment of obtaining these permits without the orchestra having any financial responsibility for these circumstances. At the time of joining the orchestra, the applicant must demonstrate his/her knowledge of Catalan and Spanish. In the event that the applicant does not have sufficient command of the Catalan and/or Spanish language, he or she must undertake to acquire it/them within a period of two years.

The cost of travel and their stay in Barcelona shall be borne by the applicants. Also, the orchestra does not undertake to provide the applicants with any rehearsal rooms prior to the auditions.
